InfluenceHer
Johnson, Dion

$24.99

Women around the globe are being called to change the world through a new kind of leadership - but to do this, we must be clear in purpose, reconnected to our 'womanity' and strengthened in our capacity as high-level influencers. Women in leadership is a big topic these days, and for good reason. But it isn't enough to simply invite women into senior positions if the system itself never changes. InfluenceHer offers the framework that is needed for women to harness their spiritual intelligence and radically transform business as a phenomenal force for good. Dion Johnson, the Womanologist, shares the five commitments that every woman influencer should follow to lead with heart and achieve big results.

The Insight Cure: Change Your Story, Transform Your Life

$26.99

Sharp, John, MD

Every person has a story, a personal narrative that informs their life, their decisions, and their way of thinking. But did you know that your story also affects the wiring of your brain? John Sharp MD, renowned psychiatrist and professor at Harvard Medical School, offers an eight-step process for discovering your unconscious narrative and using your new insight to eradicate the 'false truth' that has been at the core of your self-sabotage. His unique approach integrates four core domains of applied psychology-control mastery theory, attachment theory, narrative therapy and positive psychology.

The Magician of Lhasa

$19.99

Michie, David

When novice monk Tenzin Dorje is told by his lama that the Red Army is invading Tibet, his country's darkest moment paradoxically gives him a sense of purpose like no other. He accepts a mission to carry two ancient, secret texts across the Himalayas to safety. Half a century later, in a paradox of similarly troubling circumstances, Matt Lester is called upon to convey his own particular wisdom as a scientist, when Matt's nanotech project is mysteriously moved from London to a research incubator in Los Angeles. Tenzin and Matt embark on parallel adventures which have spine-chilling connections.

Culture and Society

A Unbreakable Rock $34.99

Bowden, Michael J

Drawing on over thirty years of relationship with the people and land of Central Australia, Michael Bowden guides us into the world of Altyerre, the ancient all-encompassing and enduring world view of the Arrernte people. In these insightful accounts of love, life, family and football Michael explores the sacredness of everyday life through an Arrernte lens and invites us to join him in searching for Mystery in our own lives.

Orcapedia $47.99

Watson, Captain Paul and Humphrey, Tiffany

Orcapedia presents a sobering look at the current imprisonment of a highly intelligent, socially complex, non-threatening species--orcas--by an industry strictly for profit. Today, there are dozens of orcas still in captivity. Readers are introduced to more than 60 orcas by name along with their photos, personal history, and notable incidents that have occurred during their captivity. This book mandates change and inspires us to follow through.

Zeitgeist Nostalgia $24.99

Alessandro, Gandini

From Trump's backward-looking promise to "make America great again" to the hipster's fondness for a pre-industrial age of craft, nostalgia saturates our world. Gandini's book is a remarkable and insightful guide to this phenomenon, laying out the deep roots of its origins and setting out the contours of its limits.

Chronos Crime Chronicles - The Death of Amy Robsart $14.99

Sarah-Beth, Watkins

Amy Robsart was the wife of Queen Elizabeth I's favourite, Robert Dudley, later Earl of Leicester. In September 1560, she was found dead, her neck broken, at the bottom of a flight of stairs at Cumnor Place. Some said she was ill, others that she was desperate. More sinister rumours talked of murder. In this book we look at Amy's unsolved death and examine who had motive to commit such a dark deed. Was it an accident, suicide or murder? The Death of Amy Robsart is the first volume in an exciting new historical true crime series.

The Circle of the Snake $27.99

Tanner, Grafton

Shocked by 9/11, the Great Recession, digital anxiety, and ecological collapse, the West suffers from nostalgia. People everywhere yearn for a utopian version of the past that never existed. Desperate for relief, many long to escape from the present. Some will stop at nothing to achieve it. In his essential new book, Grafton Tanner argues that our nostalgia today is partly a consequence of the attention economy. Spanning from the ancient Sophists to Black Mirror, The Circle of the Snake is at once a reckoning with the myth of digital utopia and an incisive analysis of nostalgia as a weapon to spread fascism.

Religion

When We Die $33.99

J. Doka PhD, Kenneth

Premonitions of death, near-death experiences, and afterlife communication are common experiences, but they can be difficult to talk about and understand. Dr. Kenneth Doka a world-renowned expert on death, dying, and bereavement explores dozens of case studies and fascinating research on the unusual phenomena related to the dying process and helps you come to your own understanding of what these experiences mean.

Joseph and the Way of Forgiveness $29.99

Mitchell, Stephen

Based on the biblical story of Joseph and his brothers, The Way of Forgiveness is a riveting expansion, lush with vivid characters and a captivating sense of place. What's new here is the lyrical, witty, vivid prose, informed by a wisdom that brings fresh insight to this foundational legend of betrayal and all-embracing forgiveness. Mitchell's retelling interweaves the narrative with brief meditations that, with their Zen surprises, expand and illuminate the main themes. The engrossing tale that he has created will capture the hearts and minds of modern readers and show them that this ancient story can still challenge, delight, and astonish.

The Figure of Christ in Contemporary Photography $79.99

Dietschy, Nathalie

In the first book devoted to representations of Jesus Christ in contemporary photography, Nathalie Dietschy presents a rich range of images from the 1980s to the present day. Works by acclaimed artists such as Andres Serrano, Catherine Opie, Wang Qingsong, Joan Fontcuberta, Vanessa Beecroft, David LaChapelle, Renee Cox, and Bettina Rheims offer fresh — and sometimes provocative — depictions of Christ, embodied by a woman, for example, or a person of color, addressing issues from race to sexuality to gender.

Lullaby Prayer $29.99

Bundy, Tamara

From the owl's hoot to the whispering rain to the sleepy songs of the wind, every sound of a country evening becomes a lullaby in Lullaby Prayer. This debut picture book from author Tamara Bundy will send your children into dreamland with a promise of God's peaceful presence all night long. As gentle nighttime scenes move through a sleepy farm, lyrical lines lull little listeners into rest. The trees, fields, and reassuring night-light reflect Jill Howarth's rich color palette, even as the moon smiles, the fireflies dance, and darkness unfolds her blanket to drape the farm in cozy quiet.

Forgiving What You Can't Forget $29.99

TerKeurst, Lysa

You deserve to stop suffering because of what other people have done to you. Lysa TerKeurst has wrestled through this journey. But in surprising ways, she's discovered how to let go of bound-up resentment and overcome the resistance to forgiving people who aren't willing to make things right. With deep empathy, therapeutic insight, and rich Bible teaching coming out of more than 1,000 hours of theological study, Lysa will help you learn how to move on when the other person refuses to change and never says they're sorry and discover what the Bible really says about forgiveness and the peace that comes from living it out right now.

The Bible in Australia $32.99

Lake, Meredith

In this multi-award-winning history of the Bible in Australia, Meredith Lake gets under the skin of a text that's been wrestled with, preached and tattooed, and believed to be everything from a resented imposition to the very Word of God. A must-read for non-believers and believers alike, The Bible in Australia explores how in the hands of Bible-bashers, immigrants, suffragists, evangelists, unionists, writers, artists and Indigenous Australians, the Bible has played a defining and contested role in this country. At a time when public discussion of religion is deeply polarised, this multi-award-winning book offers an innovative and surprising new perspective on religion and society.

Reinventing Religion $54.99

Moore, Peter

This enlightening exposition questions our very understanding of faith and contends that religions should remain open to reinventing themselves, both practically and intellectually, rediscovering neglected traditions and finding new ways forward. Written with subtlety and passion, this book gets to the heart of ongoing debates about the validity and purpose of religion.

2021 Sacred Space $9.99

for Lent

Irish Jesuits

The Sacred Space website, an inspiration of the Irish Jesuits, continues to be one of the most popular prayer sites worldwide. Twenty years ago a group of Jesuits saw the potential of the "new" world wide web as a way of helping and encouraging people to pray. The books followed soon after and have been consistent bestsellers. Sacred Space Lent 2021 continues the tradition of Scripture reading, points of reflection, a weekly topic and six steps of prayer and meditation. The handy format makes this an idea book for pocket, brief case, handbag or even the glove compartment of the car!
